Working out your grade

Graded by teacher judgement

Not graded by an algorithm

School and college assessments can continue

You'll only be assessed on what you've been taught

Your teacher will tell you what evidence is used to grade you

Private candidates to work with a school, college or exam centre to provide evidence for them to be graded

Evidence

Mocks, tests and work already done can be used as evidence

Non-exam assessment should continue

Non-exam assessments can be used as evidence even if incomplete

Art & design grade based only on your portfolio

Teachers can use question banks provided by exam boards if they want to

Results will be based on completed and future work, so keep doing your best

Results and appeals

Results days

AS and A level	10 August
GCSE	12 August

If you're unhappy with your grade, you can appeal it. First step is to submit an appeal to your school or college.

You can find out more details from your school, college or exam board, or by visiting the Ofqual website
