

Subject	Year	Term
English	10	1
Topic
Poetry, Drama and Creative Writing
Content (Intent)
Prior Learning (Topic)	Poetry and drama from previous years
Creative Writing and Poetry Anthology The first half term of Y10 will be spent honing creative writing skills. We will also cover a range of poetry from the Eduqas anthology.
An Inspector Calls Following the English Language GCSE, focus on English literature, beginning by looking at a nominated piece of drama from the 20 th century.
Future Learning (Topic) English Language Component 1 and Component 2
What Knowledge and Skills will be taught (Implementation)	How will your understanding be assessed & recorded (Impact)
Creative Writing and Poetry Students will learn how to craft a short story. They will study poems from the GCSE English literature anthology, whilst also explicitly covering questions that will be presented in their Language qualification.	Assessment S1 - English Language Component One narrative writing assessment.
An Inspector Calls Students will read and discuss the whole play; understand writer’s purpose, character as a construct, analysis of structural devices and language effects.	Assessment Extract analysis.
How can parents help at home?
Expose students to a range of poetry and foster a positive reading habit Access GCSE Pod for revision of both English Language, An Inspector Calls and Poetry. Ensure students are revising notes frequently
Helpful further reading/discussion (including Reading and Vocabulary Lists)
Reading Various poems from the Eduqas English literature anthology. An Inspector Calls by JB Priestley - GCSE 9-1 York Notes for An Inspector Calls - GCSE English Literature WJEC Eduqas Anthology Poetry Guide - for the Grade 9-1 Course (CGP GCSE English 9-1 Revision)	Vocabulary Lists Monologue Oxymoron Cultural Form Romantic	Dramatic Irony Socialist Allegorical Capitalist Patriarchy