

Subject	Year	Term
Media Studies	12	1
Topic
Media Language and Media Representations
Content (Intent)
Prior Learning (Topic)	GCSE Media or Creative iMedia
Learners will explore media language and representation, through media products set by OCR in the following media forms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • magazines • advertising and marketing and • music videos
Future Learning (Topic)	Media Industries and Media Audiences
What Knowledge and Skills will be taught (Implementation)	How will your understanding be assessed & recorded (Impact)
Students will be taught to; Study magazines and print advertising in relation to media language and media representations, including a consideration of the social, cultural and political contexts that influence how media language is used to construct representations.	Assessment 1 Two assessments will take place in this half term. One on each of the media forms that are studied. They will focus on how media language is used to construct certain representations and will be marked against the exam marking criteria.
Study music videos in relation to media language and media representations, including a consideration of the social and cultural contexts that influence how media language is used to construct representation.	Assessment 2 An assessment on the media language used in music videos will be followed by an overall assessment on language and representation covering all of the topics from this term.
How can parents help at home?
Encourage your son/daughter to read and think critically about a variety of magazines. Challenge examples of advertising and marketing that you come across with your son/daughter
Helpful further reading/discussion (including Reading and Vocabulary Lists)
Reading My Revision Notes: OCR A Level Media Studies	Vocabulary Lists By-Line Conventions Brand	Connotations Masthead Mediation